

About Arkansas United Methodist

Arkansas United Methodist is the award-winning newspaper of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas. Circulation as of December 1, 2009 was 11,100. Its readers are pastors, laypersons and leaders in churches and communities throughout Arkansas and the nation. The paper is published one time per month (first Friday), in conjunction with United Methodist Reporter, a national publication that focuses on national and international United Methodist news. In addition to the 12 monthly issues, one additional “focus” issue is published each quarter.

An interactive, digital edition of Arkansas United Methodist launched in 2008 and is distributed free of charge to readers. The digital edition retains the look of the original print edition but has additional features such as click-through hyperlinks, animation, video and audio files.

Advertising Policies

All advertising (display and classified) is subject to approval. The Arkansas United Methodist does not accept advertising for any person, product or company that is in direct conflict with United Methodist Discipline, Social Principles or AUM editorial policies.

Multiple placement discounts are given for a series of ads placed at one time, regardless of their issue dates. They must be paid for in advance on a single contract to qualify for the multiple-discount rate.

We are pleased to offer two payment options:

- You may send a check for the total amount due when you return the signed contract.
- Payment by credit card (MasterCard or Visa) can be arranged when you return the signed contract, either by mail or fax.)
