Presenters: Leo & Carmen Rodriguez

Leo y Carmen Rodriguez, both Elders in the Puerto Rican Methodist Conference, have worked with the 19 Hispanic Republics, Puerto Rico, Spain and the first, second and third generations of Latinos in the USA. They have founded 7 congregations in the states of Illinois, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Puerto Rico, Florida and the Dominican Republic. They currently minister in the Florida Conference with On Eagle's Wings Ministry. Together they have written books, "Marketry", "If God Made You an Eagle", "Do Not Die like a Chicken", "Toasted But not Burned", and with Venezuelan Theologian, Dr. Giacomo Cassese, "History, Identity Y Future".

Their current ministry focus is on the development and accompaniment of pastors and new congregations throughout the United States, with Jim Griffith, Founder of "Griffith Coaching Network", a ministry network that specializes in assessment, coaching and training for congregational growth. Leo is a graduate of Harvard University. Carmen is a graduate of Fisher College, the University of Massachusetts and the Theological Pastoral School offered in the Evangelical Seminary of Puerto Rico. They have two daughters, Avelira and Tiara, two sons-in-laws, and three grandchildren, Alondra, Eliel and Jonathan Gabriel.
